Post-Event Report

Focus on 2025 edition

The ICGT025 program included four sessions with keynote lectures covering the latest developments and the most innovative projects in the field. In addition, participants had the opportunity to schedule business meetings throughout the day via an online partnering platform. The congress also featured interactive roundtable discussions, encouraging open dialogue and exchange among experts and attendees.

The topics covered during this congress were:

- Pioneering Research and Applications in iPS Cells
- Viral and Non-Viral Vectors: Target Optimization
- Exploring the Future of CARs & TILs
- Gene Editing: Innovations, Challenges, and Applications
